State Representative Pat Boyd named Legislator of the Year by the Connecticut State Firefighters Association

Rep. Boyd is pleased to be recognized by the association at their 135th annual convention

State Representative Pat Boyd (Brooklyn, Eastford, Pomfret, Union, and Woodstock) is honored to be named Legislator of the Year by the Connecticut State Firefighters Association (CSFA) at their annual convention this past Saturday, Sept. 15.

Through his experience at the local and state level, Rep. Boyd has been known for his passion for the community as well as his unwavering passion for public service. At home in Pomfret, Pat Boyd is lieutenant and president of the Pomfret Volunteer Fire Department. At the state level, Rep. Boyd has advocated for key resources for firefighters while in his role as state representative of the 50th district of Connecticut.

“I’m so proud to receive this CSFA Legislative Award alongside my colleagues who have worked tirelessly to support the funding and other needs of firefighters,” said Rep. Boyd. “This recognition from the CSFA could not mean more to me. To know the work I’m doing at the Capitol to support my fellow firefighters across the state is appreciated makes me even more passionate about the causes I’m fighting for. I thank the association for presenting me with this award, I am incredibly humbled.”

The CSFA is a non-profit organization with more than 26,000 fire service members focused on matters relating to federal and state legislative initiatives.
