State Representative Brandon McGee Appointed to Appropriations Committee

Speaker of the House welcomes McGee as newest Committee member

Yesterday, State Representative Brandon McGee (D-Hartford, Windsor) was appointed as a member of the Appropriations Committee.

"I'm honored to join the Appropriations Committee," Rep. McGee said. "I'd like to thank the Speaker of the House for my appointment, and I look forward to getting straight to work alongside my colleagues. I am committed to representing the interests of my constituents and the residents of Connecticut to the best of my ability in my service on the Appropriations Committee.

"As a rising young leader in the legislature, Rep. McGee will be an excellent addition to this important committee," House Speaker Sharkey said. "I'm confident in his ability to jump right in and make a positive contribution to the committee's work, and I look forward to working closely with Brandon on the budget and other issues in the coming months."

Rep. McGee's appointment is effective immediately. He will continue to serve on the Education and Human Services Committees.
