REP. REYES NAMED VICE-CHAIR OF COMMERCE COMMITTEE

State Representative Geraldo Reyes (D-Waterbury) was appointed to serve as Vice-Chair of the Commerce Committee in addition to other influential committees.

“I am honored that to have been appointed to a leadership position on such an important committee,” Rep. Reyes said. “I thank Speaker Aresimowicz for the opportunity to better serve the people of Waterbury and the state.”

“In a relatively short amount of time in the legislature, Rep. Reyes has hit the ground running and has shown he has the commitment and passion to take on this leadership role,” Speaker of the House Joe Aresimowicz (D-Berlin, Southington) said. “The residents of Waterbury are fortunate to have such a dedicated public servant representing them in Hartford.”

In addition to Vice-Chair of Commerce, Rep. Reyes will serve on the Appropriations Committee (Regulations and Protection Sub-Committee Chair) and Regulations Review Committees.

The Connecticut General Assembly 2017 Regular Session began January 4th and adjourns June 7th.

Rep. Reyes is serving his first full-term representing Waterbury’s 75th Assembly District.
