

The Connecticut General Assembly

REP. ROSARIO ELECTED CHAIR OF THE BLACK AND PUERTO RICAN CAUCUS

Representative Christopher Rosario (D-Bridgeport) was voted in as Chair of the Connecticut Legislative Black and Puerto Rican Caucus today.

“It is an honor to serve as Chair of the Black and Puerto Rican Caucus and to join colleagues to work on issues that are important to the communities we serve,” Rep. Rosario said. “I look forward to reciprocating the confidence placed in me by serving to the best of my abilities for all of our constituencies.”

Other elected officers include Vice-Chair - Representative Brandon McGee (D -Windsor, Hartford), Secretary Representative Matthew Lesser (D - Middletown), Treasurer - Representative Andre Baker (D - Bridgeport) and Parliamentarian - Representative Edwin Vargas (D - Hartford).

The Connecticut Legislative Black and Puerto Rican Caucus was formed in 1976 to promote and assist minorities in becoming more actively involved in the political process, and in attaining political office, and to raise the economic potential for minorities and empowerment of the minority community in the state.
