State Rep. Jeff Currey (D-11) has been appointed to Deputy Majority Leader for the 2017-2019 term by Democratic leaders, Speaker of the House Joe Aresimowicz (D-30) and Majority Leader Matthew Ritter (D-1.) The Deputy Majority Leader is responsible for aiding the Majority Leader with the review and development of policy, the analysis of critical legislation, and with the agenda of the majority party.

As Deputy Majority Leader, Rep. Currey will work closely with the Speaker of the House and Majority Leader to rally support to pass critical legislation.

"I look forward to working closely with Speaker Aresimowicz, Majority Leader Ritter and across parties lines to keep our state moving in the right direction," said Rep. Currey said. "I am eager to tackle the challenges ahead and plan on pushing legislation that helps Connecticut residents and their quality of life."

"Rep. Currey is a highly respected member of our caucus and brings a strong work ethic to this new leadership role." Speaker Aresimowicz said. "Rep. Currey has developed an intimate knowledge of the legislative process, which will serve him well and make him a vital asset to our team."

In addition to this leadership role, Currey will continue serving on the Education Committee, Appropriations Committee and the Judiciary Committee.
