HOUSE MAJORITY LEADER RITTER NAMES GREG DAVIS TO JUDICIAL SELECTION

House Majority Leader Matt Ritter (D-Hartford) has appointed Greg Davis, of Bloomfield, to the Connecticut Judicial Selection Commission.

The Judicial Selection Commission evaluates, investigates and recommends qualified candidates for consideration by the Governor for nomination as judges for the Connecticut Superior Court, Appellate Court and Supreme Court.

“I have known Greg Davis for years. He is dedicated to Greater-Hartford and works very hard to make this a special place to live and work,” Rep. Ritter said. “Greg is a talented attorney who will thrive on the Judicial Selection Commission.”

The Commission also interviews judges seeking reappointment and evaluates the judge on legal ability, competence, integrity, character, temperament, and any other relevant factor.

Greg Davis is a native of Hartford. He graduated from Tufts University and Georgetown Law. Davis currently works as counselor for Travelers Insurance. Greg serves as president of the Hartford Public Library and he has been on the board since 2006. He also serves on the board of overseers for the Bushnell Center for Performing Arts and he is vice-president of the board of directors for the Hartford Youth Scholars.
